MJDF PART I

HOW TO APPLY

1. The only way of applying for the MJDF, both in the UK and overseas centres, is to apply online.
2. Candidates may visit this webpage: <http://www.rcseng.ac.uk/exams/apply-online>
3. As soon as your exam fee has been taken using our online exam-booking facility, you are allocated a place in the examination. Your exam place will be guaranteed once you have submitted all the necessary documentation to MJDF Exams Department.
4. Select 'Register as a new candidate' and proceed to enter your details. Please note, if you have already completed an activity at the RCSEng then we may already hold your registration details.
5. Once you have successfully registered you will then need to login via the College website and under 'Account Area' select 'Apply for an Exam'. Select the MJDF exam and the venue where you wish to sit the exam and once you have made payment you will be sent a confirmation email.
6. If you hold and have provided a GDC number you do not need to send in any further documentation.

GUIDELINES

1. Candidates whose names do not appear in the current UK dentists registry (GDC) must submit evidence (in the form of original documentation or certified copies*) of the following:

- Your primary dental qualification, together with the date of acquisition. The qualification you hold must be referred to on the following website <http://avicenna.ku.dk/database/medicine/>. If your qualification is not listed on this website you will need to provide a NARIC certificate (more information is available on <https://www.naric.org.uk/naric/>)
- Registration document; Copies of letters and certificates will only be accepted if they have been verified as a true copy. Attested copies must bear an original signature and official stamp (e.g. hospital stamp, university stamp, public notary stamp). Official English translations from a translation agency will be required for stamps or certificates that are not in English

2. Please post the evidence to the following address:
